About MidCal MINIs

MidCal MINIs is an informal car enthusiast club organized in 2005. The club was inspired by a member of SoCal MINI Maniacs (SCMM), a Southern California Mini club, and other like-minded enthusiasts in the Central Valley who wanted to create a similar social group in the San Joaquin Valley. MidCal MINIs consists of members who are passionate about sharing their enjoyment of the MINI Cooper automobile as well as sharing stories, modification ideas and great motoring routes.

MidCal is free to anyone who holds an appreciation and interest in both the Classic Mini and the new MINI.

Meetings are held the third Friday of each month with frequently scheduled motoring events and activities.

"Most people think the driver should drive and the passenger should ride. Motorers however know that everyone motors in a MINI."

Your membership will remain in effect until MidCal MINIs receives written email notice requesting cancellation.
